The Ohio Credit Union Foundation (OCUF) is offering Ohio undergraduate credit union members the opportunity to apply for a chance to win a video-based scholarship by creating a 60-second to 2½-minute interactive video answering the following scholarship question:

Pick one of the five fundamentals of credit unions and use it to convince your best friend why it's better to use a credit union than any other kind of financial institution.

Five fundamentals of all credit unions: cooperative business model, non-profit, democratically controlled (one member, one vote), member-owned, with a board of directors comprised of its member-owners.*

Scholarship Judging

Winning entries will be judged by a panel of experts who are OCUF employees/board members or credit union representatives designated by OCUF. The eligible video submissions will be judged on the following criteria:

- Originality/creativity
- Ability to deliver a message in a clear, cohesive, and impactful way
- Effectiveness in addressing the scholarship question
- Accuracy of information presented

Judges will evaluate and attribute a score to each video based upon the criteria listed above. In the event of a tie, the Video that received the higher score from the judges in the category of “effectiveness in addressing the scholarship question” will be selected as the winner. In the event that a potential winner is disqualified for any reason, the Video that received the next-highest score will be chosen as the potential winner.

The scholarship winner will be notified by phone. All funds will be made payable to the winner and the college/university they attend.
